

Laura Jean Shipley, M.D.

Laura Jean Shipley, M.D., FAAP is Managing Partner of Panorama Pediatric Group, one of the largest medical groups in the greater Rochester, NY area with 10 Physicians, 5 Nurse Practitioners, and 1 Physician Assistant. In addition, she is a Clinical Associate Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry where she teaches primary care and community pediatrics.

In 1994 she co-founded, and she currently continues to co-direct, the award-winning PLC program at the University of Rochester. PLC focuses on engaging health professionals, in practice and in training, in community health and child advocacy efforts.

Laura Jean was the lead author of a paper in Pediatrics in 2005 entitled “Teaching Community Pediatrics to Pediatric Residents: Strategic Approaches and Successful Models for Education in Community Health and Child Advocacy.” She also co-directs the “Community and Pediatricians: Partners for Children” program in Rochester which promotes involvement of practicing pediatricians in community health projects to benefit vulnerable children.

Jeffrey Kaczorowski, M.D.

Jeffrey Kaczorowski, M.D., FAAP is an Associate Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry and Executive Director of a local advocacy organization focused on achieving effective programs and policies for children, The Children’s Agenda.

He is also Principal Investigator of the American Academy of Pediatrics Community Pediatrics Training Initiative which promotes training activities that empower future pediatricians to become leaders in improving the health of all children in their communities through community-based and child advocacy efforts.

He is the co-founder (in 1994) and current Co-Director of the nationally award-winning Pediatric Links with the Community (PLC) program at the University of Rochester. PLC now works with trainees and practicing health professionals in the fields of pediatrics, family-medicine, medicine-pediatrics, psychology, public health, nursing, nutrition, and social work to engage them in community health and child advocacy activities.

Jeff lives in Rochester with his wife Laura Jean Shipley, M.D., Managing Partner of the Panorama Pediatric Group and collaborator in many of these undertakings. They have 3 children, Dan, Emma, and Jack.
