Missouri Business Leaders Summit on Early Childhood Investment

November 16, 2009
8 to 11:30 a.m.

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis

One Federal Reserve Bank Plaza
(Broadway and Locust streets), St. Louis, Mo.

Investment in early childhood programs matters to businesses. To understand how and why, please join us and welcome Dr. James Heckman, Nobel Laureate economist from the University of Chicago. Dr. Heckman will address "Investment in Early Childhood Programs: Economic Development with a High Public Return." Following Dr. Heckman's presentation, a group of Missouri business leaders will discuss early childhood investment.

Sponsored by:

- National Center for Parents as Teachers
- Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
- Missouri Chamber of Commerce and Industry
- Missouri Coordinating Board for Early Childhood
- Missouri Child Care Resource and Referral Network

The Missouri Business Leaders Summit on Early Childhood Investment is funded in part by the Partnership for America's Economic Success, which is managed by The Pew Charitable Trusts.

There is no fee for this program, but registration is required. Reserve your place now by visiting www.stlouisfed.org/events/2009nov16stlouis.
